We Launch Our Last Clearance

In Our Present Home for the Purpose of Clearing Away All Excess Stocks Before We Move

This is the final sale in our series of extraordinary events which were planned to present to our friends and customers very unusual value in order to bring business in our present home to a very successful close. Also to close out all broken lines and surplus stocks in order to have ample room for our new and greater stock to be shown in our new quarters.

Moving is too big a job. We prefer the money, regardless of profits and have made these final prices so very low that we are certain that the moving job will be taken off our hands by the scores of customers that must necessarily respond to this announcement. It was never more evident than now that the more you buy the more you will save.

It Was Never More Evident Than Now That the More You Buy the More You Will Save!
